

Lost in the Snow

Write a narrative (story) about the idea of being lost in the snow.

The story might be about getting lost in the snow.

It might be about a character that loses an important item in the snow and how they find it again .

It could be about the adventures of a rescue team that search for and find a lost skier.

Plan your writing before you begin. Think about:

- The characters in the story.
- Where the story takes place.
- The events that occur in the story.
- How the story ends.

While writing, remember to:

- Write in sentences.
- Use paragraphs.
- Be aware of spelling and punctuation.
- Use descriptive language.
- Read your writing and edit your work if needed.
